RecruitPro is an easy to use Web 2.0 eRecruitment Solution which helps automate the entire recruitment process. RecruitPro helps hire faster, save cost per hire, brings in transparency and enhances the quality in recruitment process. And reduces task repetition by 300%

Adapted from Peter Gloor, MIT

Most Productive Recruitment happens when all the stakeholders are happy. This can be achieved by high degree of connectivity, interactivity and sharing among all of them. RecruitPro helps achieve this.
How RecruitPro Works?

RecruitPro streamlines the entire Recruitment Process

Salient Features

Easy to use:

Any recruiter who is acquainted with Jobsites can just start working with RecruitPro. The learning curve is almost Zero. The product is very easy to use yet powerful.

Resume & Recruitment Process Management:

RecruitPro helps manage response from all sources through a single platform, process them and communicate to all the stakeholders through the site in a single click.

Instant Updates:

Once the Recruiter updates the status of the Resume, the information is available for Candidates and Sourcing Partners to view online instantly.

Job Marketing – Reach out to a whole new world without spending a penny! With RecruitPro

Currently Companies use Print ads and Job posting in Job sites for marketing their Jobs. Print Ads are very costly & for every Job posted in a Jobsite 100's of irrelevant Resume pour in. RecruitPro provides a new dimension to highly targeted Job Marketing

- Intuitive, Interactive & Social Corporate Career Site displays Active Jobs
- Job Broadcasting to Job aggregators like Google base, Indeed & Simply Hired
- RSS feeds to bookmarking services & online personal space
- Gadgets for Personal web home pages like iGoogle, My Yahoo! & My MSN
- Job Alerts to Subscribers and candidates through Email & SMS

Employee Referral – RecruitPro helps Exploit the Social Networking Revolution
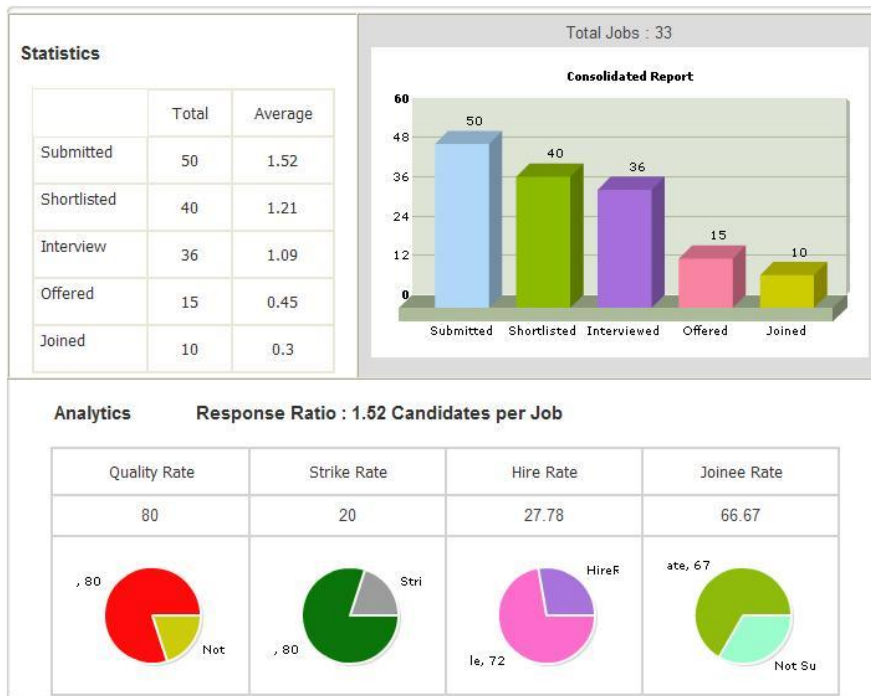

Social networking is the hottest place to be in. Most employees are there. They are networking & expanding their personal network. RecruitPro helps exploit their network through its Gadgets which can be placed by Candidates in Ning, Facebook & a host of other social networks & Blogs. Friends in their network can go through the Jobs & apply; the employee gets credit for the position automatically. RecruitPro Powered Employee Referral Program will help tap the Passive Candidate Treasure Trove.
